Review: Autobiography of Red | Boston Review

Overview. Anne Carson's Autobiography of Red: A Novel in Verse reimagines the myth of Herakles and Geryon, the red winged monster whom Herakles slays in his tenth labor. Carson bases her version on fragments of the epic poem by Ancient Greek poet Stesichoros. Stesichoros' version of Herakles' tenth labor is unique in that it is told not from Herakles' perspective, but from "Geryon's own experience" (6).

Autobiography of Red by Anne Carson is that kind of book. A retelling of the story of Geryon, a red-winged monster who has a short but painful affair with Heracles that reverberates through his life. What struck me was Geryon's unending effort to make art out of his life—first through writing, even as a child before he could actually write, and then as a photographer.
